

PERSONS AND EVENTS IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY AS PORTRAYED BY THE QUICK EYE OF THE CAMERA

ARMY MAN IN POLITICAL POST
Major General W. W. Wotherpoon, former Chief of Staff of the United States Army, who has been appointed State Superintendent of Public Works by Governor Glynn, of New York.

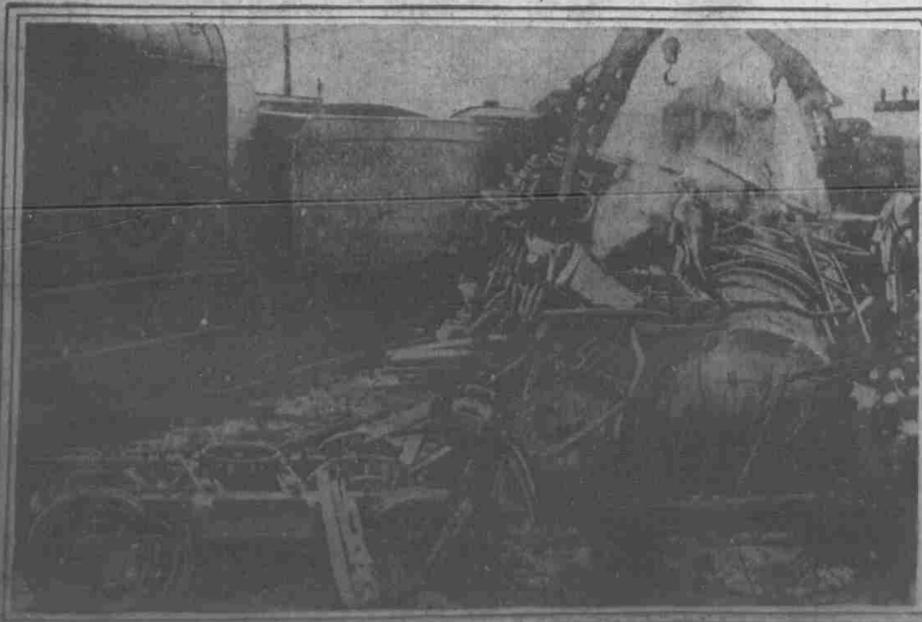

EXPENSIVE SEASHORE COTTAGES THAT SUFFERED IN GALE
A summer colony where much devastation was wrought by the storm was this at Sea Gate, L. I. Several costly structures were washed into the ocean after the bulkhead was carried away by sweeping beachcombers.

WOUNDED WARRIORS RESTING ON STRAW BENEATH ALTAR OF PRINCE OF PEACE
Injured Belgian soldiers were brought into this cathedral between the battles that went on nearby, while worshipers came and went. The praying chairs that are a feature of every European church are in the foreground.

WHAT DAWN REVEALED ON BATTLEFIELD IN FRANCE
This photograph was taken early in the morning near the River Marne after a battle between French and Germans on a field of freshly cut wheat. Most of the victims shown here are Germans. It is an unusual fact that virtually all of them fell face forward.

STRIKING ILLUSTRATION IN ROYALTY WRECK OF SAFETY OF STEEL CARS IN RAILROAD CRASHES

These photographs indicate that it would have required the British Empire to the collision at Newport yesterday, had it been made up entirely of wooden cars. The engine is shown attached to a mass of twisted iron and tangled rails, but the main car, the engine, changed nothing of the wreck. The engine struck and the car, and it parted company with an impact toward a grinding up.
